Cigar factory, La Corona Factory is one of the largest cigar factories in Cuba. The factory creates cigars for at least twenty-five cigar brands. The cigars are made using the finest Cuban-shredded tobaccos from the Dominican Republic, Honduras and Nicaragua. Today, The Cuban Cigar Factory has undergone a modern transformation with the incorporation our Cigar Lounge and Wine Bar which serves fine wine from around the world, and a wide selection of Craft, Microbrewed and Belgian beers.

Havana Club Rum Museum,. By visiting it you'll still be able to delve into Cuban culture. At the Museo del Ron Havana Club you can learn about the history and making process of this Cuban rum. This museum offers an interesting guided tour exhibiting the complex rum-making process in old machines. At the Museo del Ron Havana Club you can learn about the history and making process of this Cuban rum.

Havana is a quite simply an extraordinary city, there is no comparing this city to any other metro pole in the world. It is the capital and largest city of Cuba, Havana is the country's main port and commercial center. Old Havana was inscribed in the UNESCO World Heritage List, because of its unique Baroque and neoclassical architecture, its fortifications, and its historical importance as a stop on the route to the New World.
