Day 3 : Manali 马纳利 (B/L/D)

Manali offers marvellous walks through dappled orchards and fairy tale forests of Deodar. You will visit the Hadimba temple, standing tall among the stately Deodars. This ancient temple with its three level roofs looks like a pagoda and its lintel and door frame are of intricately carved wood. The market is crowded with interesting shops selling Tibetan carpets and crafts and the appetizing aroma of steaming noodles hangs about the little restaurants. The village of Manali is 2 km away across scented meadows and a quaint bridge over the sparking stream.

Also visit Vashisht Ashram – Vashisht was named after Rishi Vashisht one of the seven sages of Hindu. Also visit Naggar - is an ancient town in Kullu district of Himachal Pradesh, India. It is known for the impressive cultural heritage and rich architectural style.
