Volcanoes are extremely fascinating natural phenomena that show the greatness of our Planet. Visiting a volcano can be an incredible journey into Earth and humanity's history, but also a poetic experience one-on one with burning rocks and fire.

Eco-tourism also called "nature tourism". All nature-based forms of tourism in which the main motivation of the tourists is the observation and appreciation of nature as well as the traditional cultures prevailing in natural areas. In other words, it's about visiting your favorite places and seeing great sights without making much of an impact on the environment. When you're eco-touring you're thinking about conservation and how to make a positive contribution to the communities you're visiting.

Goa Jomblang is a type of vertical cave known as Collapse Doline which is formed from the collapse of the ground to the bottom of the earth along with the vegetation centuries ago. The ruins of that natural events eventually form a sinkhole. Because it has quite a large opening at approximately 50 meters, the mouth of Goa Jomblang is often called by Luweng Jomblang. Candi Prambanan

The great Borobudur Temple in Central Java Indonesia is often compared to Angkor Wat in Cambodia. Although Borobudur is not as vast as Angkor, it may be better preserved as the result of having been buried in volcanic ash for the past 700 years. The temple lies in an area between two volcanoes - Mt. Sundoro-Sumbing and Mt. Merbabu-Merapi - as well as two rivers - Progo and Elo. Borobudur is a huge pyramid literally covered with Buddha images and miles of bas relief panels depicting the life of The Buddha, the royalty of the period, and the life of the ordinary people of the region at the time. There is evidence, nonetheless, that Borobudur never left the collective cultural consciousness of the Javanese people.

If you are lucky, you might catch the culture dance performances at the courtyard by abdi dalem.

早餐后，前往参观日惹皇宫，皇宫内拥有一系列豪华的大厅、宽敞的庭院和精致的凉亭，是爪哇宫廷建筑的最佳范例之一。日惹皇宫的传统观念非常强，宫殿都是交由高贵的老家臣掌管，他们至今仍坚持穿着爪哇的传统服饰。如果幸运的话，我们能在庭院观看到皇家守卫和女官的文化舞蹈表演。
